

On which Side are You?

FOR THE AMENDMENT. 1. The Christian ministers. 2. The college professors. 3. All the Good Templars. 4. All members of the W. C. T. U. 5. All conscientious moral citizens. 6. The men who care more for country than party. 7. The men who spend their evenings at home striving to make life pleasant for wife and children. AGAINST THE AMENDMENT. 1. Brewers. 2. Distillers. 3. Saloon keepers. 4. Ward wardens. 5. Murderers and topers. 6. Drinking clergymen (a very scarce article). 7. Respectable moral drinkers. 8. Politicians who care more for votes than principle. 9. The men who shake the dice with the bartender till they lose all their money and then borrow ten cents to buy a loaf of bread for their hungry children.

Ex-Gov. Foster, of Ohio, says the annual cost of the liquor traffic in that state is $70,000,000. To taxing the traffic the Dow law secures to the state $2,000,000; this leaves the liquor traffic in debt to the state in hard cash $68,000,000 to say nothing of ruined homes, broken-hearted women, and starving children the misery of which cannot be computed. Is license profitable.

The Farmer and the Ballot.

The farmer has ten votes to seven of all other occupations. They have enough votes to carry an election. They can eventually put a stop to the extortion of railroads, agricultural implements makers, monopolists, blood-suckers and tycoons who are everywhere. They can make their own laws in every state in the Union. They can put ten farmers in congress for one they have there now.

They can have all the comforts and luxuries now enjoyed in those classes which prey upon them. They can combine themselves in a compact body.

They can co-operate, can stand by one another; and if they do so can run the world or they can continue to be the dull, helpless drudges they have been the prey of every cunning politician and speculator in the land, and to be known to their bosses as "hay-seeds" and "mossbacks."

Farmers and other men who work should pull on their own ropes. Any man who tries to put one class of labor against another is an enemy to both. "A house divided will surely fall." Division in our ranks is all our enemies want. Try to head them off. Unite against the common foe, and be not led off the track by your worst enemies, who sail under the garb of friendship.

Making Farm Life More Attractive.

Those who have given the subject attention have noticed how much more attractive to young men a stock farm is than one wholly devoted to grain raising. There is a pleasure connected with rearing the improved breeds of live stock, that makes the farmer in this business more contented. This furnishes an opportunity for the exercise of skill and judgment very different from what is required in the mere cultivation of ordinary field crops.

It may be safely stated that a majority of farmers' sons have a fondness for young stock, and if given an opportunity to care for animals in which they can take some pride, there will be less disposition to seek other pursuits. It must be borne in mind, however, that this applies to improved stock, and the farmer that goes on rearing "scrubs," while his neighbors have herds and flocks more pleasing to the eye, and more profitable as well, should not be surprised to find that his sons, as they grow older, see the difference and become dissatisfied, as they realize what contrast there is between their neighbor's stock and that at home.

In these days of very reasonable prices for all kinds of well-bred stock, the farmer who fails to avail himself of the favorable opportunity to improve his common stock, if he has such, is pursuing the most short-sighted policy.

Firemen's Tournament.

The board of directors of the State Firemen's Association met at Vancouver, Friday night, April 15th, and had an enthusiastic meeting. The next meeting will be held at Vancouver on June the 15th, 16th and 17th, and the outlook for a successful tournament is very favorable. Twenty topics were assigned for essays by the members of the state and territory at the convention. The following races and prizes were offered:

Getting Monotonous.

It might be in place to call the attention of the postal clerks on the Narrow Gauge road to the fact that while the best we can expect is to get Portland mail three times a week, it is extremely annoying to have them, from some cause or other, fail in getting our mail to us that often. It has been intimated that prohibition would have a good effect for us in this direction, as these clerks evidently get terribly muddled up; so much so as to get their regulation caps mixed up with the mail matter. Postmaster Montague had the pleasure of returning one of their caps a few mornings since. Why are these things thusly, Uncle Sam?

Letter List.

Following is a list of letters remaining in the post office at Lebanon, Oregon, May 7 1887: Elliot, John R. Miller, Mrs. Nora. Fitzschel, Mrs. R. Garton, Mrs. M. W. Wall, T. B. Warner, Charley. Wallace, Mrs. S.

Persons calling for the above must give date of advertising. E. F. MONTAGUE, P. M.

In many of the Cascade foothills, says the Silverton Appeal, there is a growth known as lupspark, which when first made is appearing in the spring, is very poisonous, often proving fatal to cattle when eaten by them. Later on, when in bloom, stock may eat it without danger. The usual remedy is to give hard or oil to stock when suffering from its noxious effects and when taken in time they can usually be saved.

Local and General.

Miss Ettie Settle is recovering from a severe attack of fever. Mutton sheep are in demand in this county now at high prices. This extremely disagreeable weather is causing much sickness in this part of the valley. Prohibition leagues are being organized all over the state, and all are working for success in November. An exchange thinks that whisky will soon be made of old rags. Perhaps so; but whisky makes rags now. William Willard will soon visit Oregon in his private car which has not been used since the gold spike days. Dr. N. J. Redpath left for Olympia, W. T. Thursday morning, where he will locate in the practice of his profession.

Miss Francis Charlton, daughter of ex-sheriff Charlton of this place, is very low. She has been an invalid for nearly a year. Curtis Baird, ex-superintendent of schools in Clackamas county, has been sentenced to four years in the penitentiary for crookedness in his office. We regret to announce the quite serious illness of G. W. Smith Esq. of this place. He is suffering from neuritis complicated with rheumatism. Twenty-two newspapers in Texas advocate the cause of prohibition, while about five in Oregon have openly pronounced their favor in that direction. While working in his garden recently, Mrs. Mary Griffin, of Fall Creek, had the good fortune to find in a lump of dirt a $5 gold coin bearing date of 1854. The prohibitory amendment was counted out, (not defeated), by 3,500 majority, in Michigan. No doubt the amendment will be tried in Oregon next November.

In the case of the town Lebanon vs. J. O. Rowland on Thursday last, charged with violating the ordinance by using profane and indecent language, the defendant was acquitted. In another column will be found the advertisement of A. C. Hausman, wagon maker, Brownsville. We take pleasure in saying to our readers that Mr. Hausman is a first-class workman and he means just what he advertises. With the remnant of the state appropriation, now reduced to about one thousand dollars, the immigration commissioners will keep the office in Portland open till September 1. It is that time a fund to continue the work has not been raised by subscription, the office must be closed.

Rank Edgar, of Turner, accompanied by two other young men, arrived here at noon yesterday having walked all the way from Prineville. They report a very rough trip over the mountains. There was about ten feet of snow at the summit and the night they were there it snowed very hard. Articles of incorporation of the Eugene Electric Light Co. have been filed in the Secretary of State's office, with J. F. Robinson, H. C. Humphrey, F. B. Dunn and J. C. Church as incorporators. Capital stock, $20,000. The company means business and will purchase the machinery necessary in a few months.

On Wednesday evening last Mr. J. B. Wirt, who has been visiting the eastern states in the interest of immigration, gave a lecture at the St. Charles hotel. Mr. Wirt undoubtedly has been of good service to Linn county during his trip east. Several parties have already come here through his influence. C. B. Rowland & Co., who recently sold their general merchandise establishment at Jefferson, on Monday last, returned to the city, and have their stock of goods furnishing goods in Albany formerly owned by Julius Joseph and closed by Portland creditors. They will at once remove to Albany and re-open the business.

Dr. Lamberson has been suffering for a few days from the effect of poison oak. On Sunday last it became so serious that he called in Dr. Courtney, who found his fellow-physician's head and neck swollen beyond recognition. While the Dr. is at loss somewhat of how just where he got the "poison," he knows too well that he had it, and had it had been timely stopped by a gentleman who was out hunting.

The first train of the California & Oregon road, known as the Portland express, left San Francisco on Sunday at 4 P. M., and arrived at the terminus of the road on time, at 9:30 Monday morning, with thirty-one passengers en route for Portland and points north. The through trip was made in forty hours. This is California enterprise and we hope see a whole lot of it infused into the business channels of Oregon. The more the better.

Since the Southern Pacific people have taken control of the O. & C. road we have from one to two trains a day more than heretofore. Lebanon now has the benefit of two trains daily while on the main line an additional train has been put on to Eugene. We should like to see California capital control the Narrow Gauge system also. The little road could be made to pay well if it was backed by a company financially able to put it in condition to be successfully operated.

At a meeting on Monday last of the citizens of Lebanon, they were appointed to prepare for the celebration of the Fourth of July at Albany, extensive arrangements were made for a grand celebration. Various committees were appointed. Hon. J. K. Westendorf was president of the day; George Humphrey, marshal; Rev. S. G. Irvine, chaplain. The celebration will be held at Hackleman's grove, adjoining the city. The committee have begun early in order to advertise well and secure a large attendance.

Sheriff Harris, of Yamhill county, says that Marple, for whose execution on the 2d of June he holds a warrant, is quite unconcerned about the matter and talks and laughs about it as freely as any disinterested person. He appears to have no realizing sense of the perilous position. He says he expects to hang, and if his time has come he is ready to go. A petition for the pardon of Marple is in circulation. It will receive but few signatures in Yamhill county, as the belief in Marple's guilt is very general there.

This very backward spring makes everything dull. Even local items are a rare curiosity on our streets, while the average bull run stock is all between his legs and languidly stretches himself down on the south side of a dry goods-box with the forlorn hope of catching a glimpse of sunshine. He has not animation enough in him to suggest a crowd, much less to stir up a fight. In such extreme cases as this the penalty for purloining local items is abolished so far as we are concerned. "Until the spring comes, when we get a little further advanced, we will more than likely adopt the systematic mode of editorial ruse introduced into Oregon by the distinguished editor (in this line) of the Jacksonville Times—steal them, "without regard to previous condition," under any and all conditions, and circumstances.

Albany Notes.

May 5. Dr. J. T. Tate is visiting at Seattle. Dr. E. L. Irvine, formerly of this city, has been appointed assistant physician at the asylum. Mrs. Garretson, mother of W. C. Tweedale, arrived in the city yesterday and will remain several weeks. Albany will celebrate the coming 4th of July in appropriate style, providing it ceases to rain before that time. Last year on April 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1886, May 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1886, two weeks later, none were yet in.

The next regular meeting of the Linn county Temperance Alliance will be held in Seilo, commencing May 24. Mrs. Capt. Powell and daughter, of Portland, and Mrs. Dr. Irvine, of Salem, are visiting friends in the city. Wm. Obermire, living a few miles from Tangent, poisoned a black bear last week, that had been killing his sheep. Last Monday the mail route over the O. P. R. R. was extended to this city, and now Albany is the terminal point instead of Corvallis.

Mr. D. Mansfield and family, after a thirty years' residence in Albany have removed to Portland, where they will in the future reside. Wm. Danna, for a long time with Messrs Fosby & Mason, has assumed charge of the medicinal department of I. Greenbaum's store. Dr. J. L. Hill, assisted by Dr. J. P. Wallace, yesterday successfully removed a large fatty tumor from the side of Mrs. R. A. Murphy.

F. W. Popo-Cox, representing an east electrical house, was in the city Tuesday, endeavoring to make arrangements for lighting the city. The city council is holding two special meetings each week for the purpose of arranging the ordinances which are being printed in book form by C. W. Watts, printer. Joseph, who was recently closed by Portland creditors, has sold the remainder of his stock to C. B. Rowland & Co., of Jefferson, who will continue the business here.

According to the recent assessment the total taxable property in Albany is nearly one million dollars, and before the summer has passed will be even more than that amount. At the last regular meeting of the common council an ordinance was passed prohibiting the use of bicycles on any of the sidewalks about the city. Bicyclists are naturally indignant. The Salvation Army, with all which that word means is upon us and to-night at Pariah's hall we open up hostilities. What has the city done to be thus oppressed is a query with many.

At the last regular meeting of Albany Engine Co. No. 1, Jos. Webber, C. W. Watts and Walter Parker were appointed a committee of three to make arrangements for a firemen's picnic sometime this month. On complaint of Adrian Comely a negro named Davis was arrested Tuesday for stealing a sledge hammer. The negro claimed to have been repaid it in the ditch and upon examination it was found there and so he was discharged. Last Thursday afternoon Mr. J. R. Stewerson sold his entire truck and dry business to George Cooper, a Linn county farmer, who assumed control of the 1st lot. Consideration, $3,140. Mr. Stewerson took in exchange Mr. Cooper's farm valued at $7,530.

Wm. M. Hong, vice-president and general manager of the O. P. railroad, returned this week from New York and it is reported that active preparations will commence at once on the road. An immense quantity of these to be made on the line of the road up the Santiam river. Mr. John Wallace, a farmer living between this city and Lebanon, had a very narrow escape from serious injury a few days since. While driving home on horseback he was overtaken by a runaway team. Riding up to the team he reached over to catch a bridle rein, and as he did so the saddle gave way, throwing him head first into the runaways. As he fell he caught the neck-yoke and in that condition was dragged several hundred yards before the team was finally stopped by a gentleman who was out hunting.

Application of H. A. Johnson for reduction of taxes was read and allowed, except state tax. Application of J. P. Ellis, of road district No. 3 for lumber, allowed; for scraper, disallowed. Toll rates over the W. V. & C. M. W. road were fixed as follows: four-horse wagon, trip each way, $3.00; two-horse wagon, trip each way, $2.00; one-horse hack, through trip, $1.25; two-horse buggy, through trip, $1.50; one-horse buggy, through trip, $1.00; one-horse wagon, through trip, $1.00; one horseman, $1.00; loss horses, per head, 25c; cattle, per head, 10c; sheep and hogs, 5c. From Fish Lake, each way: four-horse wagon, $2; two-horse wagon, $1.50; two-horse hack, $1; two-horse buggy, $1; one-horse wagon, 50c; one horseman, 25c. From Lower Soda: two-horse wagon or hack, 60c; one-horse wagon or cart, 40c; and one horseman, 20c.

The usual number of bills were read and allowed. Application of J. D. Parsons et al for alteration of road, granted; and Walter Ketchum, Wm. Ralston and H. Nicholson applied for same. Application of W. R. Powers et al for a county road was read and granted; and S. A. Dawson, W. K. Temple and H. R. Powell applied for same. J. W. Grimes, of Harrisburg, was appointed stock inspector for Linn county in accordance with a law passed by the last legislature.

The report of the tax collector was read and the county clerk was ordered to make a transcript of the delinquent tax list and turn over to the sheriff for collection. REPORTER.

Spring Bank Items.

May 2. Ed. Sutton has gone on a pleasure trip. J. Sutton's house is nearing completion. Miss Carrie Sutton is visiting at Mrs. Rorer's. Mr. Dollahide and family are visiting at Mr. Bruce's. Mr. P. Starr preches here the first Sunday of each month. Mathew McPherson of Fern Ridge is visiting his son George. Ross Hamphrey has moved into the house of W. H. McPherson. Geo. W. McPherson and family intend to go to Texas this month. The eldest son of James Tucker is visiting his father of Spring Bank. We think G. F. Reed is not in favor of Chinese labor as he has six white men grubbing for him. The school of this place is progressing nicely under the guidance of Miss Callie Morris. The number of pupils enrolled are 25. H. M.

Brownsville News.

May 5. The first of May, who moves? J. M. Moyer left for Portland on Saturday last. Alonzo Keys, during the past week departed for Colfax. Dr. B. H. Carl is visiting Seilo on professional business. C. E. Rockwell returned home on the evening of Saturday. Coshaw & Cable's new agricultural depot is nearly completed. On Monday last James M. Harge took charge of the Willson hotel. Ed. Starr visited his brother Dr. I. W. Starr, on Saturday last. Just received, new watches, chains, and rings, by Pillsbury the jeweler. The B. W. M. Co. have completed repairs and are now running on time. Finley McRae and family returned to Moyer's logging camp, on Wednesday last. During the past week Thomas Kay Sr. died by death a fine mare valued at $125.

Mrs. Jay A. Bishop, on Thursday last departed for Portland to visit family friends. William Cochrane and wife on Tuesday last arrived home from California, via Yaquina. W. M. Sawyer in charge of Moyer's logging camp, departed for that place on Tuesday last. Mrs. Thomas Kay who has been somewhat ill during the past week, is improving in health. G. A. Dyson has completed a new picket fence, adding greatly to the appearance of his property.

Mrs. John Brown who has been seriously ill with neuralgia, is suffering intensely from the affliction. The new bell for the Baptist church was swung into position on Tuesday last. It weighs 400 lbs and gives forth a clear musical sound. Miss Viola Sharp, who has been confined to the house for the past week suffering from an attack of chills and fever, is convalescing fast.

At the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. R. N. Thompson and Mrs. I. W. Starr, were appointed delegates to the state W. C. T. U., convening at The Dalles, May 18th, 1887. At the Baptist church on Sunday, Sabbath school was held at 2 P. M. Young peoples prayer meeting at 6 P. M. Rev. C. A. Wooley, held morning and evening services at the Presbyterian church.

The Commercial hotel is of the past, the former proprietor John Williams, removing to give possession to Robt. Sanders who has purchased the property, which he will in the future occupy as a dwelling. At the North Brownsville city hall on the evening of May 13th, Rev. T. J. Willson of Halsey, chairman of the Linn Co. Temperance Alliance, will deliver a lecture on the subject of prohibition. The Rev. Willson is an able speaker, and all attending will receive an intellectual treat.

The quarterly meeting of the Brownsville, M. E. church, will be held, commencing May 14th, and continuing over the following Sunday. Elder S. P. Willson will be in attendance and on Sunday evening will deliver a lecture, subject the Prohibition amendment. Elder S. P. Willson is an able speaker, and all attending will receive an intellectual treat. The Commercial hotel is of the past, the former proprietor John Williams, removing to give possession to Robt. State News.

Flour has gone up to $1.35 per sack in Eugene. The half-headed American eagle is getting ready to scream at Sumnerville this year. Drummers report Oregon business as being more lively than for three or four years past. Farmers on Butte creek, Marion county, are agitating the question of starting a creamery. The daily mail between Ashland and Linkville will be discontinued June 30 next, it is reported. In Jackson county sheep shearing is now progressing and the yield will be large and of excellent quality.

Eugene City now rejoices in a fine system of water works, from which every house in the city can be supplied. A report is in circulation that opposition boats will be placed on the Columbia river within the next two months. A few days ago John Robbins shot and killed a bear in a fatiguing hunt, his farm near Dallas. It measured three feet from tip to tip. The rain and snow and cold winds on Tuesday night of last week made it difficult for the sheep lamb crop to survive, says a Prineville paper. Wm. Proelstel, county stock inspector of Union, started out last week on a trip over the county, for the purpose of examining the condition of stock.

The Whitman mine in Pine creek is about to be opened, and will yield five feet in width. The superintendent, Prof. Luce, says the ore is rich enough. The cold, wet weather of the past few weeks has been rough on sheep men and has cost the life of many a new-born lamb in the vicinity of LaGrande. A platform for 100 feet long for the accommodation of passengers who will take meals there, is being built at Medford on the east side of the track, opposite the depot. All reports state that there is considerable snow in the mountains, and the present cold weather will have the effect to produce very high water the coming spring.

Prineville, which town has been without a school house or a public school for a long time, have voted to bond the town for $8,000 and build a new school building. It is stated on good authority that a lime rock deposit exists on the South Fork of Crooked river, and two gentlemen who are old limeburners have gone up there to prospect it. LaGrande Journal: Starkey Prairie is seven miles wide and about sixteen long. New families are constantly coming in and taking up land, which is sure to be rich and productive. The Grant county News warmly exclaims: Look out for high water the coming summer. Plenty of snow in the mountains, and the cool weather is holding it there to come down all at once with a hot sun. The warm weather for the past few days has caused the river to rise rapidly. The overflow of the river will be of vast benefit to the hay ranches in the valley, and just the needed thing to insure good hay crops.

Southern Oregon has more veterans of the Mexican war than would be supposed residing here at this date, says a Jacksonville paper. Many of them have perfected their papers and will soon draw pensions they merit so much. IN MEMORY OF EDWARD MILLS. BY LIDA RICKA. Let us not think we're forgotten by our loved one gone before. Nor that all light of us has vanished when he entered heaven's door. Eyes that have closed in darkness there are gazing from on high. Watching, waiting for our footsteps in the coming day and by. Though our parting here was bitter and the hands clasped very tight. Though our hearts still all unshedded after his face so cold and white. Though the precious love we lavished from the death that hovered near. Could not save him, but we'll meet him in the coming day and by. Though his hand on earth grew weary further on. They'll grasp our own. Lead us through the gates of Jasper up to the great white throne. Edward's love seems so much needed our yearning to supply. He has not left us but proceeded to a sweeter by and by. Though our lives seem oh! so lonely since beneath the coffin lid. All that made life dear to us is from sight forever hid. Though our earthly home be broken, yet, up yonder in the sky. There's a mansion ready waiting for our coming by and by. Though we cannot cease to sorrow and we never can forget. That the peace death here made recent ever must be vacant yet. Though our hearts so torn and bleeding still our faith in God to try. And we know He's ready waiting for us in that blessed by and by. Let us faint not though we are hidden by the brightness of the sun. It is only the pangs of gladness sure to be reflected. Peaceful yet will be the dawning and its brightness we desire. How our hearts are yearning for the meeting by and by. WATERLOO, O., May 5.
